

YOU ARE INVITED . . . to stop by the home of Mrs. Melvina Beckwith, 1322 Engracia, and enjoy the beauty of this pink rhododendron which is now in its fullest glory. The rhododendron is a gift to Mrs. Beckwith from her daughter, Mrs. Steve Wells. It's a little more than a year old. Mrs. Beckwith, who has lived here since 1914, invites the public to view the gorgeous plant.

Arlington

A special meeting of the Arlington PTA was held Monday evening, April 29, due to the resignation of four of the newly-elected officers. President-elect Mrs. M. Spaulding resigned because of ill health. The resignations of Mrs. R. Eye-stone, Mrs. J. Ramirez, and Mrs. C. Morris were made necessary due to a boundary change.

The following officers were nominated and elected to serve during the coming year: President, Mrs. J. Prince; first vice president, Mrs. L. Briley; recording secretary, Mrs. F. Stutler; and corresponding secretary, Mrs. M. Douglas.

A number of students from Mrs. Webster's sixth grade class entertained the audience with several different dances. They were thoroughly enjoyed by everyone.

Members of the board were hostesses for the evening.

The May meeting will be held on the third Thursday of the month, May 16, instead of the second Thursday, May 9, because of the State Convention. Installation of officers will take place at this time.

Riviera

Installation of the newly elected officers for the Riviera PTA was held Wednesday evening, May 15, at the Riviera Cafeteria, which also marked the final meeting of the year.

The following officers were installed by Mrs. Glenn Grimslay: president, Mrs. Gene Voorhes; first vice president, Mrs. James Osborn; second vice president, Mrs. Markle Sparks; third vice president, Mrs. Leo Lavanas; fourth vice president, Mrs. Edward Davis; recording secretary, Mrs. Carl Whistler; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Jay Madden; treasurer, Mr. Richard Dodge; historian, Mrs. James Cassell; and auditor, Mr. Richard Miller.

The PTA chorus opened the meeting with an inspirational song and a short business meeting followed. Lt. Don St. Hill, from the underwater recreation training program in Redondo, spoke on "Skin Diving as an Underwater Sport."

A social hour followed with cookies and coffee served by fourth grade room mothers.

Madrona

The last board meeting of Madrona PTA was held at the home of Mrs. Don Harding, 2767 Onrado, May 8.

Madrona PTA Association meeting was held Wednesday, May 15, in the dining patio. Installation of officers for the

ZTA Holds Second Meet

The Zeta Tau Alpha Alumnae Club held its second meeting Tuesday evening, May 22, at the home of Mrs. Everett Patterson, Manhattan Beach. The group met in order to formulate future plans.

Those forming the nucleus for the club were those who attended the first meeting held in the home of Mrs. Franklin Steinke of Palos Verdes Estates. They were Mmes. Everett Patterson, C. S. Boston, A. E. Zirolli, and Robert E. Pearce.

Torrance residents attending the second meeting were Mrs. Warren Newsinger and Mrs. Dely A. Stromme. From Rolling Hills was Mrs. Tom R. Gillian, Jr. Mrs. Mary Rohrer, city treasurer of Hermosa Beach, is acting as temporary chairman for the group. All ZTA alumnae living in the South Bay area are cordially invited to join the club and help organize plans for 1957. They may contact Mrs. Patterson, Mrs. Rohrer or Mrs. Stromme for the details of meeting place and purpose.

Historically, ZTA has its roots in the Civil War-shrouded South, being organized as a women's fraternity in 1898 at Longwood College in Virginia. Founded at a time when women rarely thought of invading the male world of professions, ZTA was organized on the campus of what was then the State Normal School for Teachers, the one profession considered suitable for ladies. The organization is now international and works toward philanthropies, conventions and worth-while college and alumnae activities for its women.

coming year was held. A talent show including parents and students of Madrona, was presented. Mrs. R. L. Hagenbaugh, president-elect, and Mrs. Eric Wescomb were in charge of the program.

Madrona will have a cartoon carnival Monday, May 27. There will be two showings—one at 6:30 p.m. and one at 7:30 p.m.

The Madrona PTA board members will have a luncheon on June 1.

"Be thrifty when you're young, and when you're old you'll be able to afford the things only the young can enjoy!"

Scout Trails

Scout Troop 211
Newly organized Boy Scout Troop 211 sponsored by Howard Wood PTA spent a recent week end camping at Steckle Park near Santa Paula. Scout Master Don Cooke, accompanied by Joe Helphand and Raymond Ramsey led the overnight encampment and also took the boys to the Fillmore fish hatchery.

The troop applied for its charter April 5 and the boys meet Wednesday evenings at the Wood School. They have already begun their treasury with profits derived from selling ice cream at the PTA carnival and selling lillies at Easter.

David Ramsey, Kyle Mallett, Donald L. Mallett, Ronald Hixson, Ken Helphand, Nelson Stanley and James Goree. Next outing is Saturday, May 25. The 3-day camporee will find the boys visiting at O'Neill Park. This is a district camporee.

Other adults on the committee include Chairman Larry Brown, Assistant Scoutmaster Tony Schnell; Gordon Jones, explorer advisor; Jay Nielsen, Institutional representative; Mrs. Helphand, advancement chairman and publicity, Virginia Jones.

A new Air Explorer Scout unit is going to be formed in Walteria. A meeting of all interested young men from 14 to 18 years of age and their fathers will take place in the Walteria Scout House at 25000

Young People Hold Party

The Senior Luther League of First Lutheran Church had a "This Is Your Life" Party in which they surprised one of the Leaguers, their president, Grace Warde, last Wednesday. The program was narrated by Dennis "Ralph Edwards" Hansen.

Participants included parents, relatives and friends who brought out many amusing highlights in the guest's life. A beautifully bound scrapbook made by Mrs. Edward Hansen contained her life story and pictures.

A tape recording was made of the program by George Forjock and presented to Grace along with the scrapbook. An orchid corsage and a gardenia corsage were presented to her. Homemade ice cream and cupcakes were served.
